The South Dakota State University women's basketball team enters the 2009-10 season with high expectations as it attempts to repeat as champions of The Summit League.

The Jackrabbits return four starters from the 2008-09 squad that won both the regular season and postseason league titles en route to a 32-3 overall record and a berth in the NCAA Tournament for the first time at the Division I level. SDSU also attained its first national ranking as a D-I squad, climbing as high as 14th in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches' Poll.

The past success led the Jackrabbits to be a near-unanimous pick to repeat as Summit League champions, as selected by the annual preseason poll of league coaches, sports information directors and media, which was released in October. The Jackrabbits received 25 of the 27 first-place votes.

Although South Dakota State does not have a player on the preseason all-Summit League First Team, four Jackrabbit players received preseason accolades by being named to the second team: senior forwards Maria Boever and Ketty Cornemann, junior guard/forward Kristin Rotert and sophomore guard Jill Young.

Boever, a 6-foot-1 senior forward from Worthington, Minn., earned honorable mention all-Summit League honors last season after averaging 10.0 points and 6.0 rebounds per game, while shooting 51.1 percent from the field. A starter in 25 of the 30 games in which she played, Boever scored in double figures 14 times and added a pair of double-digit rebounding performances.

Boever is poised to become the 27th member of the Jackrabbit 1,000-Point Club as she enters the season with 891 points.

A 5-11 senior forward, Cornemann earned all-Summit League second-team recognition during the 2008-09 season. One of only two Jackrabbits to start all 35 games, she reached double figures 13 times en route to averaging 8.2 points and 3.1 rebounds per game.

Rotert, a 6-foot junior wing, was another honorable mention all-league performer after averaging 10.1 points and 3.0 rebounds per game in 30 starts. She ranked second on the team with 60 three-pointers and had the tendency to rise to the occasion in big games, posting double figures for scoring 17 times.

Young, a 5-7 sophomore guard, earned Summit League Sixth Woman of the Year honors and a spot on the Summit League All-Newcomer Team after ranking second on the team in scoring at 10.2 points per game. The Mitchell native established a Jackrabbit freshman record with 82 three-pointers. She also ranked third among NCAA Division I players in three-point shooting, connecting on 46.1 percent of her attempts.

The other returning starter is junior point guard Macie Michelson, who led the team to a 16-1 record when she was in the starting lineup last season. Despite missing 10 games with a hand injury, Michelson still ranked third on the team with 64 assists and finished fifth with 31 steals, while averaging 5.6 points per game.

While the Jackrabbits had the luxury of bringing a number of seasoned veterans off the bench last season, SDSU will rely on a number of underclassmen to fill reserve roles this season.

Of the 15 players on the roster, five are true freshmen, one is a redshirt freshman, three are sophomores, three are juniors and three are seniors.

Should Young move into a starting role, the top returning scorer off the bench would be sophomore forward Jennie Sunnarborg, who averaged 3.3 points per game in 24 appearances.

The Jackrabbits will look for an expanded role for sophomore guard Vanessa Johnson, who missed nearly half the season due to injury. Johnson averaged only 0.6 points per game during the 2008-09 season, but will provide the Jackrabbits with another perimeter shooting threat.

As a team, the Jackrabbits set a school record with 291 three-pointers, finishing fifth in Division I with an average of 8.3 per game.

Other returning bench players include senior point guard Alison Anderson (1.1 ppg) and junior forward Jennifer Schuttloffel (1.7 ppg).

Of the six players in the freshman class, four are from the state of South Dakota. Ashley Eide (Sioux Falls), Tara Heiser (Watertown) and Steph Paluch (Pierre) will fill guard slots, while Katie Lingle (Pierre) will back up in the post. Rounding out the freshman class are Jordan, Minn., native Leah Dietel at forward and red-shirt freshman post player Cala Westergard.

Eide and Heiser each played on state championship teams in high school, while Dietel, Paluch and Lingle led their respective high school squads to runner-up finishes.

A native of Charles City, Iowa, Westergard has not played in anything but an exhibition game since her junior year of high school as she missed her senior year of high school due to injury.

The Jackrabbits will again play a difficult slate of non-conference games in preparation for the Summit League schedule.

Of SDSU's first nine non-conference games, eight will be against an opponent that played in the postseason a year ago, starting with the Nov.

13 season opener against fellow NCAA Tournament qualifier Gonzaga (Wash.). Six more games would be against NCAA Tournament teams should the Jackrabbits meet Virginia in the second round of the Junkanoo Jam Nov. 27 in the Bahamas.

Three of SDSU's opponents are ranked in the top 25 of either the Associated Press or ESPN/USA Today preseason poll: Arizona State (16/11), Virginia (14/18) and Middle Tennessee State (24/RV).

The Jackrabbits will begin defense of their Summit League crown Dec. 5 at Western Illinois. SDSU has dominated Summit League play since joining the 10-member conference at the start of the 2007-08 season. In winning back-to-back outright regular season titles, the Jackrabbits have compiled a 33-3 record against league foes, including a perfect 18-0 mark at home.

Overall, the Jackrabbits have won 14 consecutive games after posting the first undefeated home season in program history during the 2008-09 campaign. SDSU has won 34 consecutive regular season home games, while turning in a 106-7 record at Frost Arena since the start of the 2001-02 season.

In all, SDSU is scheduled to play 14 home games during the 2009-10 season, including the renewal of the rivalry with the University of South Dakota on Feb. 15. The two in-state programs have not met since the 2003-04 season — SDSU's last at the Division I level.

The Summit League Championship returns to Sioux Falls March 6-9.

2009-10 JACKRABBIT BASKETBALL

FACILITIES

As the South Dakota State University women's basketball team has grown into a championship-caliber team at the Division I level, so have the team's facilities.

Recent improvements included moving the team into a new locker room during the 2007-08 season as part of a Stanley J. Marshall HPER Center expansion project that included the addition of locker rooms for volleyball and women's swimming.

In the fall of 2008, a new team room and lounge opened on the lower level of the HPER Center, adjacent to Frost Arena. Team rooms play a vital role in allowing space to prepare for upcoming games, study between classes and to also gather as a team to form the bond that allows them to be champions on and off the court.

Student-athlete facilities will be further enhanced later this fall with the completion of the Dykhouse Student-Athlete Center. Located in the north end zone of Coughlin-Alumni Stadium, the Dykhouse Student-Athlete Center will house an academic center for use by all Jackrabbit student-athletes, as well as new locker room and training facilities for the SDSU football team.

Construction on the Dykhouse Student-Athlete Center marks the first stage of a master plan to dramatically modernize athletic facilities at SDSU.

The $6 million donated by Sioux Falls bankers Dana Dykhouse and T. Denny Sanford in the fall of 2007 set in motion the construction of the first major athletic building on campus since Frost Arena in 1973.

2009-10 JACKRABBIT BASKETBALL

FROST ARENA

The Jackrabbit women's basketball team holds a decisive home-court advantage in Frost Arena, named after former Jackrabbit coach and athletic director R.B. "Jack" Frost.

Frost served as athletic director and professor and head of the physical education department from 1947 until 1960. He also was an international leader in recreation, health and physical education

Frost Arena, which is part of the Stanley J. Marshall HPER Center, now seats approximately 6,500 fans for basketball. The addition of chair-back lower-level seating prior to the 1992-93 season, as well as the addition of chair-back seating in the lower level end zones and new student bleachers in the summer of 2004, have reduced seating from the original all-bleacher capacity of 9,500.

In the fall of 2005, Frost Arena was included with Coughlin-Alumni Stadium in a $3 million Daktronics scoreboard project. The Frost Arena portion includes a four-sided scoreboard with four ProStar® video screens measuring 12 feet by seven feet, two ProAd® displays measuring 60 feet long by four feet high and a new full-color digital ProTable® scorers table.

Widely regarded as the finest arena with the best athletics atmosphere in the state, Frost Arena also is home to the Jackrabbit men's basketball, volleyball and wrestling teams. It was the site of the 2003 NCAA Division II North Central Regional women's basketball tournament. Postseason basketball returned to Frost Arena in 2007 as two rounds of the Women's NIT were played in front of capacity crowds.

Frost Arena also has been the site of six North Central Regional men's basketball tournaments, four NCAA Division II Wrestling National Championships, as well as the South Dakota Class AA Girls' Basketball State Tournament in 2006 and 2009.

In addition, Frost Arena is the site of SDSU graduation ceremonies, the annual Wacipi pow-wow, concerts and numerous other campus events.

Ground was broken Sept. 22, 1970, with the cornerstone placed by Gov. Richard Kneip on Oct. 2, 1971. Final cost of the building was $3,685,000, with the difference made up by gifts and donated items.

SOUTH DAKOTA STATE UNIVERSITY

EXCELLENCE

With a record enrollment of 12,376 students in the fall of 2009, South Dakota State University is the state's largest institution of higher education. Students from all 50 states and more than 40 nations attend SDSU, which is a public, land-grant institution.

Nearly 70,000 degrees have been granted since the college was chartered in 1881. Degrees are offered through these nine colleges:

- Agriculture and Biological Sciences
- Arts and Sciences
- Education and Counseling
- Engineering
- Family and Consumer Sciences
- General Studies
- Nursing
- Pharmacy
- Graduate School

SDSU also offers degree programs through the University Center in Sioux Falls. Evening, RDTN, Internet and off-campus courses are coordinated through the Office of Continuing and Extended Education.

More than 200 majors, minors and options are available at SDSU with more than 2,500 different course offerings. Students also have the ability to choose from more than 200 clubs and organizations active on campus.

Master's degrees are offered in more than 30 areas and doctorates are available in eight fields.

SDSU maintains a student-faculty ratio of 18:1.

More than 2,000 people are employees of SDSU, and the University's total operating budget was nearly $208 million in Fiscal Year 2008.

The Coughlin Campanile pictured in the foreground is South Dakota State University's most recognizable landmark. The university is undergoing rapid growth both in terms of enrollment and building projects.

PROGRESSIVE

South Dakota State University is experiencing unprecedented growth, both in enrollment and building projects.

Projects recently completed or currently under way include:

- The $48 million, 144,000-square-foot Avera Health and Science Center;
- Harding Hall South, a 30,000-square-foot building that will house an expansion within the College of Engineering;
- The $6 million Dykhouse Student-Athlete Center;
- Caldwell Hall, with work beginning on additional suite-style residence halls;
- A $7.8 million campus wellness center.

Additional facility projects and enhancements to academic programs are being identified through the SDSU Foundation's "It Starts With State" campaign, a comprehensive fund-raising initiative designed to raise $190 million over the next several years.

INNOVATIVE

The Innovation Campus at South Dakota State University is the state's first and only university-affiliated research park. Located on 125 acres just east of campus, it provides an environment that will foster partnerships among the University, business, government and the community to grow the sciences and technology-based economy.

SDSU has the highest percentage of undergraduates involved in research of any South Dakota public university. SDSU is large enough to offer competitive research opportunities, yet small enough to foster student-faculty learning opportunities.

Major areas of research at SDSU include:

- Engineering and technology research into photovoltaic devices, nanotechnology, materials science, wind power, surface transportation systems, signal and image processing, water treatment, computer sciences, software engineering and computational science and statistics.
- Agricultural sciences research on crops and livestock, including food manufacturing, bio-based energy, economics and horticulture.
- Management and conservation of natural resources.
- Health sciences, nutritional sciences and wellness research programs in pharmaceutical sciences, nutrition and exercise physiology.
- Renewable energy research is developing bio-based energy technologies, while promoting diversification and environmental sustainability of America's agriculture.
- Over the next five years, $69 million in federal funds is to be awarded to SDSU and six other universities to serve as Vanguard centers for the National Children's Study. The NCS will study more than 100,000 children across the country from conception to age 21.

SOUTH DAKOTA STATE UNIVERSITY

JACKRABBITS

South Dakota State University currently offers 21 varsity sports with Jackrabbit teams competing at the NCAA Division I level. Football competes in the Division I Football Championship Subdivision Missouri Valley Football Conference, with 18 sports competing in The Summit League. Wrestling competes in the Western Wrestling Conference, while equestrian currently does not have conference affiliation.

Following is a listing of sports currently offered at SDSU:

Women's Sports

- Basketball

EVOLUTION OF A NICKNAME

There are two theories as to how and why the Jackrabbit nickname evolved. The most common belief is that the name "Jackrabbits" came from a story and cartoon sketch that appeared in a Minneapolis newspaper following a 1905 football game between the University of Minnesota and South Dakota State College, as the university was then known. A reporter for the newspaper, knowing of the preponderance of jackrabbits in the Brookings area, was believed to have written that the SDSC team was as quick as jackrabbits. Many people believe that the school adopted the Jackrabbits as its official nickname from that beginning.

The other theory about the origin of the nickname is given in The Jackrabbit, SDSU's yearbook. There is a poem in the 1907 yearbook that puts forth the idea that the yearbook is called The Jackrabbit because a group of juniors wished to immortalize themselves by changing the name of the yearbook. Athletic teams followed suit, adopting the nickname.

Prior to the adoption of the Jackrabbit nickname, school athletic teams were known as the Barn Yard Cadets as SDSU was known as South Dakota State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts in 1907.

The South Dakota State University women's basketball team has set a standard of excellence both on the court and in the classroom in recent years.

The Jackrabbits began a string of three consecutive team grade-point average titles — not only in Division I but across all levels of women's college basketball — in 2005-06 with a 3.730 team GPA. SDSU repeated with a mark of 3.693 in 2006-07 and claimed its third title with a 3.669 team GPA during the 2007-08 academic year. In addition, the Jackrabbits finished second among Division I programs during the 2004-05 season with a 3.567 team GPA.

SDSU's team GPA streak came to an end as it was overtaken for the top spot in the Women's Basketball Coaches Association Academic Top 25 Team Honor Roll during the 2008-09 season.

The Jackrabbits still managed a third-place showing in the NCAA Division I rankings with a 3.571 team GPA and ranked 16th among all divisions, which includes NCAA Division I, Division II, Division III, NAIA and junior colleges. Indiana State took over the No. 1 spot in Division I with a 3.645 team GPA, earning the top ranking for the third time (also in 2002-03 and 2004-05). The University of North Dakota ranked second at 3.580.

SDSU was one of seven Division I teams in the WBCA's honor roll to make an NCAA Tournament appearance during the 2008-09 campaign. Only the Jackrabbits, who finished the season with a 32-3 overall record, and Kansas State advanced past the first round.

The Jackrabbits also received recognition on the WBCA Academic Top 25 Team Honor Roll during the 1999-2000 and 2003-04 seasons while competing at the NCAA Division II level.

2009-10 JACKRABBIT BASKETBALL

South Dakota State University seniors Ashlea Muckenhirn and Jennifer Warkenthien were named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District VII Women's Basketball First Team during the 2008-09 season.

A native of Osceola, Wis., Muckenhirn was selected to the seven-member first team with a perfect 4.0 grade-point average in sociology, while Warkenthien was honored on the first team with a 3.89 GPA in early childhood education. Warkenthien was later honored on the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America Second Team and was named Summit League Scholar Athlete of the Year.

Muckenhirn and Warkenthien were two of 15 Jackrabbit student-athletes to earn ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District recognition during the 2008-09 academic year.

Others honored included:

- Ryan Berry, football;
- Kellyn Farrell, women's soccer;
- Amanda Frohling, women's track and field;
- Chelsea Goosen, women's soccer;
- Stacy Huss, women's track and field;
- Ben Jasinski, men's track and field;
- Erin Kasmarik, women's soccer (Academic All-America Second Team);
- Conrad Kjerstad, football;
- Kelly Larson, women's soccer;
- Kyle Minett, football (Academic All-America First Team);
- Trent Peterson, men's golf;
- Kevin Robling, football (Academic All-America Second Team);
- Jason Stripling, wrestling

In the most recent census conducted by the NCAA, Jackrabbit student-athletes registered a 79 percent academic success rate. Nearly 60 percent of SDSU's 480 student-athletes maintained a cumulative grade-point average of 3.0 or higher. Of those 286 student-athletes, 132 compiled GPAs between 3.50 and 4.0.

2009-10 JACKRABBIT BASKETBALL

COMMUNITY-MINDED

Throughout the school year, the Jackrabbit women's basketball team takes an active role in Brookings and surrounding communities.

The team's recent community service activities include:

- Doing yard work, scraping and painting a house in Brookings as part of a Habitat for Humanity project;
- Participating in the Jackrabbit Caravan by visiting hospitals and nursing homes in Sioux Falls;
- Conducting the annual youth basketball Fast Break Clinic;
- Operating a skills booth at the annual Halloween Penny Carnival, with proceeds going to the Brookings D.A.R.E program;

In addition, the team hosts annual Shrine and Pink Zone™ games, which raise funds and awareness for Shriners Hospitals and breast cancer research, respectively. This season, the team also will hold a game jersey raffle with proceeds benefitting South Dakota Special Olympics.

Many other community service activities are organized through the SDSU Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC), whose mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by promoting opportunity for all student-athletes, protecting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image.

People associated with Jackrabbit Athletics understand the important role South Dakota State University plays in the city of Brookings, as well as in the state of South Dakota. Because the athletics program and its student-athletes derive so much support — both financial and emotional — from the residents of the city, state, and region, importance is placed on giving back to the community through service projects, volunteering, and fund-raising for charitable organizations.

The entire Jackrabbit women's basketball team spent a Saturday at the start of the school year doing yard work and painting a house as part of a Habitat for Humanity project in Brookings.

ATMOSPHERE

South Dakota State University boasts one of the most loyal basketball fan bases in the Upper Midwest.

During its memorable 2008-09 season in which it attained a national ranking at the Division I level for the first time, SDSU ranked 44th among D-I schools in home attendance with a school-record average home crowd of 2,803 fans. It marked the third consecutive season and sixth time in the last eight years that the Jackrabbits averaged more than 2,000 fans per home game at Frost Arena.

SDSU has led The Summit League in women's basketball attendance by a wide margin each of its first two seasons in the league. During the 2007-08 season, the Jackrabbits drew nearly 800 more fans per night than the nearest league school. That margin grew to more than 1,100 fans as the Jackrabbits compiled a 32-3 overall record en route to the league title.

Home attendance surged to a then-record 2,753 fans during the 2006-07 season in large part due to the Jackrabbits hosting a pair of games in the postseason Women's NIT. Both those matchups were played before capacity crowds — 5,719 versus Illinois State and 6,053 against Indiana.

Saturday doubleheaders return during Summit League play. SDSU will host five twinbills at Frost Arena this season with women's games beginning at 5 p.m., followed by men's contests at 7:30 p.m. Last season, three of the doubleheaders drew 4,000-plus fans, including a season-high 5,637 against Oakland in a game that decided the league regular season title.

SDSU completed its run at the NCAA Division II level during the 2003-04 season by leading the division with an average home attendance of 2,484 fans. That capped a string of nine straight seasons ranked in the top five for home attendance in Division II.

The Jackrabbit women's basketball team played before two capacity crowds during its 2007 Women's NIT postseason run. SDSU has led the Summit League in women's basketball attendance each of its first two seasons in the league and ranked in the top 5 nationally during the 2008-09 season with a record average of 2,803 fans.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

All requests for media credentials for SDSU women's basketball home games should be directed to sports information director Jason Hove at least 24 hours prior to the event.

Credentials will be mailed if requests are received a week or more in advance. Otherwise, credentials may be picked up at the Jackrabbit Ticket Office inside the Stanley J. Marshall HPER Center weekdays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., or at the Frost Arena will-call window one hour prior to the start of the event.

Only working media will be allowed access to press row at Frost Arena. Media requiring access to phone lines and Internet for photo or story transmission should contact the SDSU sports information office in advance of gameday to assist in seating assignments, etc.

All credentials are non-transferable.

The following guidelines apply specifically to Internet sites:

- No more than two people working for the official Web site of the opponent and/or its official conference site will be issued credentials.
- Web sites whose content centers around message boards and chat rooms where users can post anonymous information and/or rumors are ineligible for any consideration for credentials or access.

• Credentials will not be granted to any agency operating sites that are in any way affiliated with gambling, or to freelance or fan-based sites that are not affiliated with a legitimate news-gathering organization.

The final decision for credentials remains at the sole discretion of SDSU sports information personnel. Failure to abide by the guidelines outlined on this page may result in revocation of credentials.

BROADCASTS

All Jackrabbit women's basketball games during the 2009-10 season are scheduled to be broadcast live on KJJQ 910 AM and WNAX 570 AM, with Tyler Merriam calling the play-by-play and Laurie Melum providing color commentary during home games. Select radio broadcasts also can be heard on KRKI 99.5 FM in Rapid City and KGFX 1060 AM in Pierre.

In addition, all radio broadcasts will be streamed to the Jackrabbit Extra subscription

COACHING STAFF

COACH JOHNSTON

AARON JOHNSTON

• Head Coach

Entering his 10th season as head coach of the South Dakota State University women's basketball team, Aaron Johnston has taken the Jackrabbit program to the top of NCAA Division II and is leading SDSU to national prominence at the Division I level.

Johnston enters the 2009-10 season with a career record of 225-65 (.776 winning percentage), ranking second on the SDSU career victories list behind his predecessor, Nancy Neiber, who compiled a 301-140 record in 16 seasons from 1985-2000. Johnston posted his 200th career victory on Dec. 4, 2008, against Centenary (La.) His career totals have included a 33-3 record (.917 winning percentage) in Summit League regular season games and a 16-5 mark (.762 winning percentage) in postseason games.

The Summit League Coach of the Year in each of the Jackrabbits' first two seasons in the 10-team league, Johnston was named a finalist for the 2009 Naismith Award as the nation's top coach. SDSU tied a school record for victories in a season with 32 during the 2008-09 campaign and gained national attention by vaulting into the top 25 in December after non-conference victories over the likes of Wisconsin, Utah, Minnesota and Gonzaga (Wash.). The Jackrabbits were ranked in the final 13 USA Today/ESPN regular season coaches' polls, climbing as high as 14th in the coaches' poll and 16th in the Associated Press poll. SDSU finished the 2008-09 season ranked 19th in the coaches' poll.

Along the way to a 32-3 overall record, the Jackrabbits received national media coverage from CBS Sports, USA Today, ESPN.com and The New York Times.

Johnston laid the foundation to a successful transition to Division I by leading SDSU to three consecutive NCAA Division II Elite Eight appearances, including the first national championship in the program's history during the 2002-03 season.

During their championship run, which culminated with a 65-50 victory over Northern Kentucky in the NCAA Division II championship game in St. Joseph, Mo., the Jackrabbits compiled a school-record 32 wins against just three losses. SDSU also earned a share of its first-ever North Central Conference title with a 14-2 record in league play. After leading SDSU to unprecedented success, Johnston was named the 2003 Molten/Women's Division II Bulletin Coach of the Year.

The Jackrabbits attained much of the same success in the 2003-04 season, earning a share of their second consecutive North Central Conference title and winning the North Central Regional for the third consecutive year. SDSU finished the 2003-04 season with a 26-7 mark, falling to eventual national champion California (Pa.) in the first round of the NCAA Division II Elite Eight.

With South Dakota State moving up to NCAA Division I during the 2004-05 season, the Johnston-led Jackrabbits posted their fourth consecutive 20-win season, finishing with a 21-7 record. That mark included an 8-7 record against Division I opponents, highlighted by victories over NCAA Tournament qualifier Middle Tennessee State and Southeastern Conference opponents Alabama and Kentucky.

The Jackrabbits continued their rise in the Division I ranks with a 19-9 record in 2005-06, then put together a breakthrough campaign during the 2006-07 season by posting a 25-6 overall record and becoming the first team in transition to reach the postseason, reaching the quarterfinals of the Women's NIT. SDSU won WNIT home games against Illinois State and Indiana before falling at Wyoming.

Johnston led the Jackrabbits into another new era as South Dakota State began play in The Summit League during the 2007-08 season. SDSU continued its run of success by winning the Summit League regular season title — the program's first outright conference championship. The Jackrabbits completed a 16-2 mark in league play and 23-7 overall record for their sixth 20-win season in Johnston's eight years as head coach. The Jackrabbits posted a 12-game winning streak to conclude conference play and earn their second consecutive berth in the WNIT. However, SDSU's home-court advantage was not enough as the Jackrabbits fell to a hot-shooting Creighton (Neb.) squad, 76-69, in the tournament's first round.

SDSU repeated as Summit League regular season champions during the 2008-09 season, improving by one game to a 17-1 record in league play. The Jackrabbits went into the Summit League Championships as the No. 1 seed and lived up to their billing by winning the conference tournament in Sioux Falls, S.D., with three double-digit victories. SDSU overcame a 14-point halftime deficit in the championship game, rallying for a 79-69 victory over Oakland (Mich.).

With their conference tournament victory, the Jackrabbits became only the second team to earn a berth in the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament in its first year of eligibility. Seventh-seeded SDSU opened NCAA

- 2006 and 2007 Division I Independent Coach of the Year
- 2008 and 2009 Summit League Coach of the Year
- Enters 2009 season second on SDSU career victories list with a 225-65 record
- Posted a 13-2 record in NCAA Division II postseason games
- Has compiled a 3-3 record in Division I postseason games, making two WNIT appearances (2007, 2008) and one NCAA Tournament appearance (2009)

COACH JOHNSTON

Tournament play in Lubbock, Texas, with a 90-55 victory over Texas Christian, tying a school and tournament record with 16 three-pointers. The Jackrabbits were on the verge on reaching the Sweet 16 before falling in the final seconds to second-seeded Baylor (Texas), 60-58.

During their first three seasons at the Division I level, the Jackrabbits dominated the independent ranks by posting a 19-2 overall record against fellow D-I independents, including an 18-0 record the last two seasons. In both the 2005-06 and 2006-07 seasons Johnston was honored as the Division I Independent Women's Basketball Coach of the Year.

Johnston first became associated with the Jackrabbit women's basketball team when he spent the 1999-2000 season as assistant coach under Nancy Neiber. After Neiber took a leave of absence late in the season, Johnston coached the Jackrabbits to a 4-2 record in the final six games of the season as SDSU finished the season with a 19-8 overall record, 11-7 in NCC play. One of the Jackrabbits' victories was over second-ranked and eventual national runner-up North Dakota State.

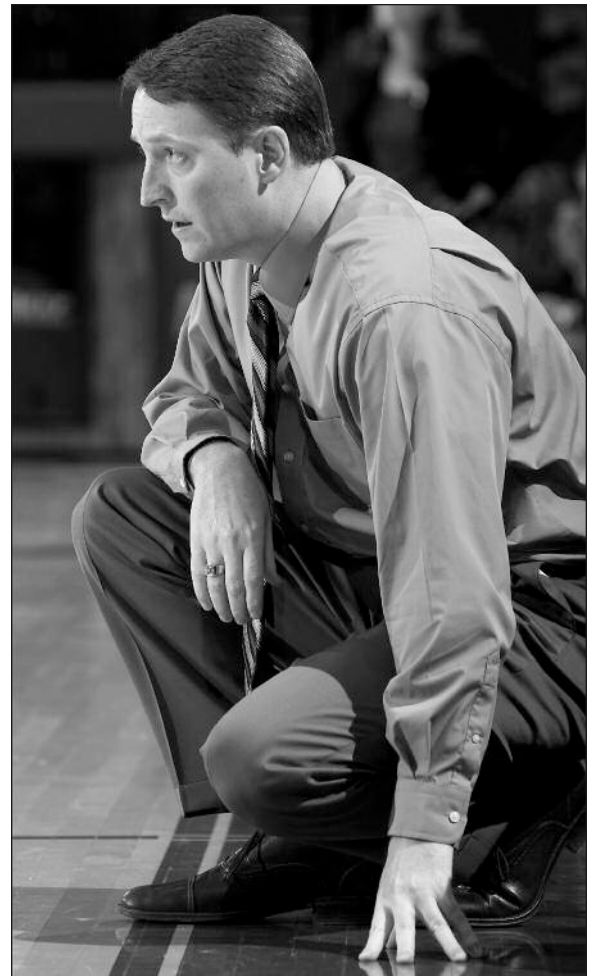

When the interim label was removed from his title on June 30, 2000, Johnston became the seventh head coach in the modern era of South Dakota State University women's basketball, which began in 1967.

In the 2000-01 season, his first full season as Jackrabbit head coach, Johnston led SDSU to a 15-12 overall record. That mark included a North Central Conference record of 9-9, which earned the Jackrabbits a berth in the seven-team Wells Fargo Finals conference postseason tournament.

During the 2001-02 season, Johnston led a Jackrabbit squad which included just two seniors and nine freshmen to SDSU's first-ever appearance in the NCAA Division II Elite Eight. The Jackrabbits compiled a 28-9 record, setting a then-school record for wins in a season.

Not only have Johnston's teams performed well on the court, they have excelled in the classroom. The Jackrabbits have finished no worse than third among Division I programs in the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's Academic Top 25 Team Honor Roll the past five seasons, and led all divisions of women's basketball in team grade-point average three consecutive seasons (2005-06, 2006-07 and 2007-08).

A native of Pine Island, Minn., "A.J." earned a bachelor's degree in health and physical education from Gustavus Adolphus College in St. Peter, Minn. After serving one year as an assistant coach at North Dakota State College of Science in Wahpeton, he moved on to SDSU as a graduate assistant for the Jackrabbit men's basketball team for two seasons before becoming assistant women's coach. He also coached the SDSU golf teams one year.

KATIE FALCO

• Assistant Coach

Katie (Miller) Falco returns for her second season as an assistant coach with the South Dakota State University women's basketball team.

After joining the SDSU coaching staff in June 2008, Falco played a key role in the Jackrabbits' success during the 2008-09 season. She helped devise many of the team's defensive strategies that allowed SDSU to lead The Summit League in scoring defense (51.7 points per game) and turnover margin (+5.7), and also aided in the development of the Jackrabbit post players.

Falco also oversees the team's travel, camps and community service efforts.

An assistant coach at Montana State for three seasons, Falco was part of a dramatic rebuilding process directed by head coach Tricia Binford. The Bobcats won only three games during the 2005-06 seasons, but improved to 13-16 in 2006-07. MSU continued its upward swing in 2007-08, posting an 18-13 overall record and reaching the Big Sky Conference championship game.

One of Falco's primary responsibilities at Montana State was to serve as academic coordinator for a program that was honored on the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's Academic Top 25 Honor Roll three times. The Bobcats finished fifth in Division I for team grade-point average during the 2005-06, fourth in 2006-07 and 11th during the 2007-08 campaign. SDSU led all divisions of women's college basketball in team GPA each of those seasons.

A native of Solon, Iowa, Falco was a standout player at Northern Iowa, ending her career fifth on the career scoring charts with 1,343 points. A first-team all-Missouri Valley Conference performer in 2003, she finished second in the league with 18.2 points per game in leading the Panthers to their second Women's NIT appearance in three years. She also set a UNI record for career free throw percentage at 82.4 percent, making an MVC-record 53 consecutive free throws during her freshman season.

Falco also excelled in the classroom, earning Verizon Academic All-America honors in 2003 while completing a bachelor of arts degree in sports psychology. She then moved on to pursue a master's degree in physical education at Utah State, where she served two years as graduate manager for an Aggie women's basketball team that was reinstated following a 16-year hiatus.

EMILEE GUSSO

• Assistant Coach

Emilee Gusso returned to the Jackrabbit women's basketball coaching staff in July 2009, and will serve as the team's recruiting coordinator and academic coordinator in addition to her on-court duties.

Gusso spent the last three seasons as an assistant coach at Drake (Iowa), helping guide the Bulldogs to the NCAA Tournament in 2007 and a WNIT appearance a year later. Drake won the Missouri Valley Conference postseason tournament in 2007, winning four games in as many days to reach the NCAA Tournament for the 10th time in school history.

In Gusso's three seasons at Drake, the Bulldogs compiled a 56-42 overall record, including a 30-24 mark in Missouri Valley Conference play. Drake improved from 14 victories her first season on the bench to 23 during the 2007-08 campaign.

Gusso previously served as a graduate assistant at SDSU during the 2004-05 and 2005-06 seasons, helping the Jackrabbits through their first two years of transition to the Division I level. Gusso completed her master's degree in sports pedagogy from SDSU in the spring of 2006.

A Spearfish native, Gusso played collegiately at Nebraska-Kearney from 2000-03. The Lopers won Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference East Division titles and qualified for the NCAA Division II postseason each of her four seasons. While finishing degrees in mathematics and physical education, she served as a student assistant at UNK for the 2003-04 season.

ASSISTANT COACHES

CHAD OLETZKE

• Assistant Coach

Chad Oletzke begins his first season on the Jackrabbit women's basketball coaching staff after being appointed to a newly created assistant coaching position in August 2009.

Oletzke served as head women's basketball coach at Northwest College in Powell, Wyo., the past five seasons. During his tenure with the junior college program, Oletzke earned coach of the year honors after leading the Trappers to a Wyoming Community College Athletic Conference championship and a North Sub-Region title.

A native of Blaine, Minn., Oletzke began coaching at the collegiate level at Southwest Minnesota State University in Marshall, Minn., serving as an assistant women's basketball coach for four years. While with the Mustangs, SMSU posted three 20-win seasons and made two NCAA Division II postseason appearances.

Oletzke earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Southwest Minnesota State in 1998, after completing a playing career with the Mustangs. He added a master's degree in education, with an emphasis in educational leadership, from SMSU in 2004. He also coached boys' basketball and boys' and girls' golf at Wabasso (Minn.) High School prior to coaching at SMSU.

DEB REMMERDE

• Graduate Assistant

Deb Remmerde makes the transition from the playing court to the sidelines as she begins her coaching career as a graduate assistant for the South Dakota State University women's basketball team.

A native of Rock Valley, Iowa, Remmerde put together a record-setting playing career at Northwestern College in Orange City, Iowa. A four-time first-team All-American and 2008 NAIA Division II Player of the Year, she finished her career as the division's all-time scoring leader with 3,854 points — an average of 28.8 points per game. She established a single-season scoring record with 1,122 points during the 2007-08 season and also set all-time NAIA records for career (95.77 percent) and single-season (97.24 percent) free throw percentage. Her 133 consecutive made free throws are the most in competition at any level — high school to professional, men's or women's).

After completing her collegiate playing career in 2008, Remmerde earned a tryout with the WNBA's Houston Comets and briefly played professionally in Germany. She graduated from Northwestern with a degree in sport management and is pursuing her master's degree in sport pedagogy at SDSU.

COACHING STAFF

NATHAN MOE

• Strength and Conditioning Coach

Nathan Moe is in his fourth year directing the strength and conditioning program at South Dakota State University.

Moe joined the Jackrabbit coaching staff in August 2005, after heading the strength and conditioning program at Eastern Illinois University for three years. Previously, he was the assistant coach for strength and conditioning at Rice University in Houston, Texas, where he worked with the football strength program, while being directly responsible for men's and women's track, men's and women's tennis, women's swimming, women's soccer and men's golf.

At SDSU, Moe has implemented the Iron Jacks program, which recognizes Jackrabbit student-athletes from all 21 varsity sports who achieve a set of high standards for specific exercises in their respective sports.

From 1997 through the spring of 1999, Moe was a graduate assistant in the strength and conditioning program at the University of Texas. He has also worked in private business in the physical fitness profession in both Austin, Texas, and Fargo, N.D.

He is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist, and a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association, USA Weightlifting and the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association.

Moe is a 1996 graduate of Moorhead State University (Minn.), where he was an all-conference linebacker for the 1995 Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference champions.

DR. DAVID L. CHICOINE

• President

David L. Chicoine, Ph.D., became the 19th president of South Dakota State University on January 1, 2007. He is the third alumnus to serve as president of the institution.

Dr. Chicoine has a long association with intercollegiate athletics, and was recently appointed as vice chair of the President's Council for The Summit League — SDSU's conference home for 18 of its 21 varsity sports. Previously, Chicoine served as the faculty representative to the Big Ten Conference and the National Collegiate Athletics Association (NCAA) for the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. He served as chair of the Budget and Finance Committee for the Big Ten Conference for nine years of his 11-year term.

During his tenure at South Dakota State, Chicoine has directed the creation of a comprehensive strategic plan that has outlined four core goals:

- Enhance academic excellence and strengthen scholarship and artistic activities;
- Foster economic growth, vibrant communities, and a sustainable environment;
- Expand the reach of the university through engagement, technology, and globalization;
- Establish a sustainable financial resource base.

Dr. Chicoine brought more than 30 years of experience in higher education with the University of Illinois to his role as president of SDSU. He is a nationally recognized economist, specializing in public finance, taxation, and rural economics. His higher education administrative experience includes service as Head of the Department of Agricultural Economics and Dean of the College of Agriculture, Consumer and Environmental Sciences, at the University of Illinois.

As vice president at the University of Illinois, he restructured the university's technology licensing offices, reaching new milestones each year; launched the university's early stage capital and business development services company, IllinoisVENTURES, LLC, that supported start-up projects, securing special state and university funding for operations and pre-seed investing and facilitated the creation of the $26.5 million early stage Illinois Emerging Technologies Fund; and he oversaw the expansion of research parks and incubators at the university's Urbana-Champaign and Chicago campuses.

As dean, he transitioned the College of Agriculture, Consumer and Environmental Sciences (ACES) from 14 administrative units to seven academic departments and the Information Technology unit; completed a capital campaign for ACES surpassing the final goal of $115 million by raising $134 million in private gifts; grew the ACES endowment to $60 million; established $15 million in annual private gift support, funding endowed positions, scholarships and fellowships, and program support for teaching, research, and Extension; and he oversaw the completion of the $22 million ACES Library, Information and Alumni Center where $11 million was from gifts from ACES alumni and friends.

He has co-authored four books, 12 book chapters and more than 100 invited and/or peer reviewed academic journal articles. Dr. Chicoine served as an advisor to the Illinois General Assembly on tax issues, farmland property tax assessments, public finance and rural economic issues. He served as a member of the Illinois Governor's Council of Economic Advisors, and was a member of the board of the Illinois State Treasurer's Technology Development Fund. He currently is a tenured faculty member in the SDSU Department of Economics, where he has been recognized as a Distinguished Alumnus.

Dr. Chicoine is a graduate of SDSU with a B.S. in agribusiness in 1969, and the University of Delaware where he received an M.S. in agricultural economics in 1971. In 1978 he received an M.A. in economics from Western Illinois University, and in 1979 he completed his Ph.D. in agricultural economics at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

The president and his wife, Marcia, live in Woodbine Cottage on the SDSU campus. Their family includes son, Joshua, a Chicago-based musician; daughter-in-law Laura Ellsworth; granddaughter Sylvie; and their late son, Jason.

JUSTIN SELL

• Athletic Director

Justin Sell, who served as an athletic administrator at the University of Northern Iowa for the past 10 years, was introduced as the 12th director of athletics at South Dakota State University on May 7, 2009.

“Justin brings a wide range of experiences from other Division I universities to South Dakota State,” President David L. Chicoine said in making the announcement. “He has a degree of familiarity with our athletic programs’ conference affiliations, and he demonstrates an appreciation for Jackrabbit athletics. Most importantly, he shares our common aspirations for the future success of our student-athletes and teams.”

Born in Salem, Ore., and raised in Columbus, Ohio, Sell most recently served as senior associate athletic director at UNI since 2006. His primary duties at the Cedar Falls-based university included sport management, oversight of the athletic business office, facilities, game management, summer camps and human resources, while also assisting in fundraising and corporate sponsorships.

In his previous roles as an assistant and associate athletic director at UNI, Sell managed facility operations and the planning of capital projects, including the $26 million McLeod Center and the $7 million Human Performance Center. He also oversaw the UNI-Dome budget and was responsible for developing a revenue generation team to enhance marketing, development and ticket income.

Aside from his duties at UNI, Sell was active in the community as president of the Cedar Valley Sports and Entertainment Commission. The commission has been the driving force behind bringing several major concerts and sporting events to the Waterloo-Cedar Falls area, including the National Wrestling Coaches Association National Duals and several youth tournaments.

Prior to joining the staff at UNI, Sell worked four years at Villanova University (Pa.), where he was an assistant director of athletic facilities and intramural director before being named director of ticket operations.

Sell earned his bachelor’s degree in sport management from Bowling Green State University (Ohio) in 1991 and completed a master’s degree in physical education/sport administration at The Ohio State University in 1992.

At South Dakota State, Sell will oversee the Jackrabbits’ 21-sport Division I varsity athletics program. Eighteen SDSU teams compete in The Summit League, while football competes in the Missouri Valley Football Conference of the Football Championship Subdivision, and wrestling is a member of the Western Wrestling Conference. Women’s equestrian competes in Varsity Equestrian and the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association.

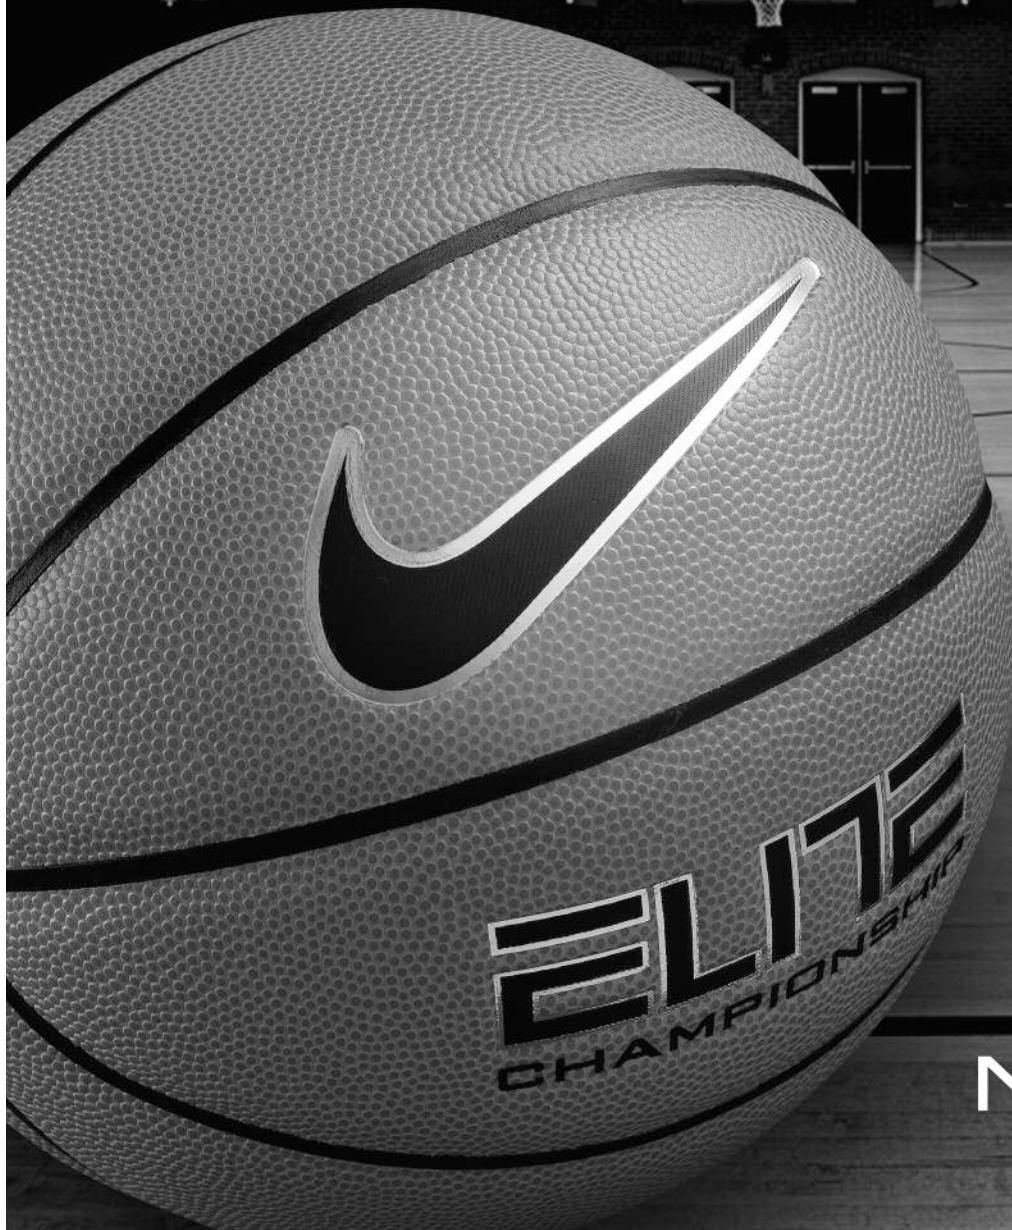

He and his wife, Jennifer, are the parents of four children: Abbie (13), Zach (12), Josh (9) and Eric (8).

THE SUMMIT LEAGUE

THE SUMMIT LEAGUE

The 2009 Summit League Basketball Championships set a new attendance record with 34,681 spectators and reached record levels of corporate sponsorship in its first year in Sioux Falls, S.D.

Now in its 28th year as an NCAA Division I athletics conference, The Summit League continues its renaissance and ascent both on the playing field and in the classroom. The 2008-09 academic year saw the league reach numerous milestones among its 10 member institutions and 19 championship sports.

The Summit League made history during its 2009 Basketball Championships with record crowds and sponsorship totals in its first season in Sioux Falls, S.D. New attendance standards were established for the entire tournament, the women's tournament and several individual sessions. On the court, the North Dakota State men and South Dakota State women both achieved the rare feat of earning an automatic NCAA bid in their first season of eligibility.

Netting the NCAA's largest men's basketball attendance increase during the 2008-09 season further illustrated the growth and excitement surrounding Summit League basketball. The league ranked 16th nationally, up six spots over the previous year, and increased its crowds at a rate of 30 percent per game.

While basketball played a major part of the league's success, significant Summit League achievements spanned beyond the hardwood.

An unprecedented total of three Summit League teams ended their 2008-09 seasons with a national ranking. North Dakota State's softball team ended the year ranked No. 18 in the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll after capturing the league's first NCAA Regional title in a decade and becoming the first Summit League team to reach the Super Regional round. South Dakota State's women's basketball team earned a No. 19 ranking in the final USA Today/ESPN Coaches' poll after peaking at No. 14 during the season and posting a first-round victory in the NCAA Tournament. The Oakland men's soccer team finished at No. 30 in the College Soccer News poll after reaching the No. 24 position earlier in the season and becoming The Summit League's first top-25 soccer squad.

The NDSU softball and SDSU women's basketball teams were just part of The Summit League's postseason success that saw a combined seven NCAA Tournament wins. SDSU notched the league's first NCAA women's soccer tournament victory with a first-round win. Oral Roberts claimed a pair of baseball victories in the Tempe Regional to finish as runner-up.

The Summit League sent two teams to the NCAA Men's Soccer Tournament for the first time since 2003, and the third time in history. Additionally, Oakland's men's basketball team hosted and won its first round game in the inaugural CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament.

Individually, North Dakota State's Laura Hermanson recorded the league's best women's track and field finish with a runner-up performance in the 800 meters at the NCAA Outdoor Championships. Also in June, Western Illinois' golfer Kyle Peterman won a qualifying playoff to earn an amateur spot in the 2009 U.S. Open. During the basketball season, Oakland's Johnathon Jones was the NCAA assists leader and became the fourth player in league history, and first in 10 years, to lead the nation in a major statistical category.

In the classroom, a Summit League record 13 student-athletes were recognized as Academic All-Americans, including North Dakota State basketball player Brett Winkelman, who was selected as the University Division Academic All-American of the Year. Oakland basketball player Jessica Pike also garnered a top academic honor for her sport and was named the Division I-AAA Athletics Directors Association Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Six Summit League teams were bestowed with the NCAA Public Recognition Award, an honor given to teams that have a Division I Academic Progress Rate (APR) in the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sports. Receiving the accolade was IPFW's men's cross country and volleyball teams, UMKC's volleyball and women's tennis teams, Oakland's women's golf team and South Dakota State's men's golf team.

The achievements during the 2008-09 academic year carried over from the summer when a pair of former Summit League student-athletes gained individual acclaim on the world stage. Former Oral Roberts student-athlete Andretti Bain won a silver medal at the 2008 Beijing Olympics as a member of the Bahamas' 4x400-meter relay team after having claimed both the NCAA Indoor and Outdoor 400-meter titles earlier in the year. Former IUPUI standout George Hill became The Summit League's second NBA first round draft pick when he was selected 26th by the San Antonio Spurs after garnering Summit League Player of the Year honors.

Originally formed in 1982 as the Association of Mid-Continent Universities and later known as the Mid-Continent Conference, The Summit League is in its third year of a rebranding that followed its 25th anniversary and coincided with the Summit Plan, a strategic plan that places a renewed emphasis on improving the academic and athletic performances of all league student-athletes. Included in the plan was the league's new name, the creation of a new image and the addition of three member institutions.

THE SUMMIT LEAGUE

South Dakota State reached as high as No. 14 in the national polls, the highest in Summit League history, during the 2008-09 women's basketball season. The Jackrabbits also claimed the league's highest NCAA Tournament seed and second NCAA Tournament victory.

The 10 Summit League member institutions include Centenary College of Louisiana, IPFW (Indiana University-Purdue University-Fort Wayne), IUPUI (Indiana University-Purdue University-Indianapolis), UMKC (University of Missouri-Kansas City), North Dakota State University, Oakland University, Oral Roberts University, South Dakota State University, Southern Utah University and Western Illinois University.

In April 2009, the University of South Dakota accepted an invitation to join the league with full membership during the 2011-12 academic year and will begin as an associate member for swimming and diving in 2009-10. The league has one other associate member, Eastern Illinois University, which competes in swimming and diving.

These member institutions pride themselves on providing quality athletic, academic and social experiences for their student-athletes.

The Summit League sponsors 19 championship sports, which include: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's indoor track and field, men's and women's outdoor track and field, men's and women's tennis, and volleyball. The league champion receives automatic bids to the NCAA Tournament in all applicable sports.

Since its inception in 1982, The Summit League has had several transcendent moments on the national stage. In 1986, Cleveland State upset third-seeded Indiana in the first round of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament on its way to a berth in the Sweet 16. A decade later, Valparaiso captured the nation's attention when Bryce Drew hit "the shot" to defeat No. 4 seed Mississippi in an NCAA first-round game and spark its Sweet 16 run. More recently, Oral Roberts' baseball program finished the 2004 campaign with a national-ranking and became the first Summit League school to reach the NCAA Super Regionals in 2006.

The league has produced four Olympic athletes, four NCAA champions and several All-Americans in the sports of track and field, swimming and diving and cross country. Numerous professionals and several draft choices have come directly from The Summit League, including three Major League Baseball first round picks, a pair of NBA first rounders and one WNBA selection. Former Summit Leaguers Kevin Duckworth (NBA) and Kevin Seitzer (MLB) each were two-time all-stars during their professional careers. Recent and historical success coupled with an increased growth among its membership base gives The Summit League a promising future on the landscape of college athletics.

One of the Summit League's most iconic moments came when Valparaiso's Bryce Drew hit "the shot", a game-winning three-pointer at the buzzer, to top Mississippi in the first round of the 1998 NCAA Tournament. Valpo's story captivated the nation as they became the league's second team to reach the "Sweet 16."

Former Western Illinois standout Zane Teillane became The Summit League's first WNBA Draft Choice in 2006 and played for the Latvian National team at the 2008 Beijing Olympic Games.

PRESEASON RANKINGS

The South Dakota State University women's basketball team is a near-unanimous pick to repeat as Summit League champions, as selected by the annual preseason poll of league coaches, sports information directors and media, which was released in October.

The Jackrabbits, who return four starters, received 25 of the 27 first-place votes to tally 419 points. Oakland University (Mich.), which lost to SDSU in the Summit League Championship last season, earned one first-place vote and finished second in the poll with 365 points. North Dakota State was third with 318 points, while Oral Roberts (Okla.) picked up the other first-place vote to finish fourth with 289 points.

Four Jackrabbit players received preseason accolades by being named to the all-league second team: senior forwards Maria Boever and Ketty Cornemann, junior guard/forward Kristin Rotert and sophomore guard Jill Young.

UMKC guard Chazny Morris was named the Preseason Player of the Year. She was joined on the first team by North Dakota State guard Inger Hodgson, IPFW guard Chelsey Jackson, Oakland guard Melissa Jeltema, Oral Roberts guard/forward Janae Voelker and IUPUI center Julia Whitted.

The Summit League opens its 18-game, double round-robin schedule Dec. 5. The Summit League Championship returns to the Sioux Falls Arena March 6-9.

SDSU is coming off a season in which it tied a school-record with a 32-3 record and achieved a national ranking at the Division I level for the first time in program history. The Jackrabbits posted a 17-1 Summit League record during the regular season and went on to win the postseason tournament, securing a berth in the NCAA Tournament. SDSU defeated Texas Christian, 90-55, in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, before falling 60-58 to second-seeded Baylor (Texas).

The South Dakota State University women's basketball team captured the headlines and hearts of the region during a run to a Summit League championship and the NCAA Tournament during the 2008-09 season.

The Jackrabbits' 32-3 mark matched the 2002-03 NCAA Division II national championship team for best record in program history. SDSU also completed an undefeated home season for the first time, compiling a 14-0 record at Frost Arena. SDSU also set a single-season average attendance record of 2,803 fans per game.

Playing a tough non-conference schedule, the Jackrabbits faced Missouri, Wisconsin, Utah, Oregon, Maryland, Illinois, Montana, Minnesota, and Gonzaga all within the first 11 games of the season. The Jacks boasted an 11-1 record during this stretch, dropping a single contest to 10th-ranked Maryland, 68-56.

The precedent was set early for this successful season as the SDSU women were honored with the top grade-point average in the country among all divisions of women's college basketball for the third consecutive year. In the previous 2007-08 campaign, the Jackrabbits compiled a team GPA of 3.669 for the top overall spot.

Milestones continued for SDSU on Dec. 4, when the Jacks' 63-41 victory over Centenary (La.) gave Aaron Johnston his 200th career win — all at SDSU.

The Jackrabbits were also ranked nationally for the first time on Dec. 16 in the USA Today/ESPN coaches' poll, checking in at No. 22. They were the first Summit League team to be ranked since Northern Illinois held a No. 25 ranking for one week during the 1993-94 season. The Jacks were consistently ranked in the Top 25 during the rest of the season, ranking as high as No. 14.

On Jan. 3, senior Jennifer Warkenthien became the 26th player in Jackrabbit women's basketball history to reach the 1,000-point mark for her career in a 71-48 Summit League victory over IPFW. Warkenthien finished her basketball career with 1,349 points, placing her at 13th on the women's basketball all-time scoring list.

The Jackrabbits also made their mark on the Summit League as a team, finishing the regular season with a 17-1 record and closing out league play with 14 straight wins. SDSU claimed its second consecutive regular season Summit League championship, placing it as the top seed in the conference tournament, which was played in Sioux Falls.

The Jacks rolled past Oral Roberts in the opening round, 77-49, and pulled out another win in a tough battle against IUPUI in the semifinals, 68-53.

In the title game, South Dakota State faced rival Oakland (Mich.), the team that handed the Jackrabbits their only conference loss in early January. The Jacks overcame a 14-point first-half deficit and outscored Oakland by 20 points in the second half on their way to a 79-69 victory, giving SDSU its first conference tournament championship in program history. The tournament drew a record 16,335 fans for the four women's sessions held at the Sioux Falls Arena.

Along with a Summit League Conference Tournament championship, the Jackrabbit squad was well represented in postseason conference honors, led by Summit League Player of the Year Jennifer Warkenthien. Ketty Cornemann was named to the all-league second team, while Maria Boever and Kristin Rotert were honorable mention selections. In addition, Coach Aaron Johnston was named Summit League Coach of the Year for the second consecutive season, and Jill Young was honored as Sixth Woman of the Year and earned a spot on the league's all-newcomer team.

Young finished her redshirt freshman season ranked third in the nation for three-point shooting at 46.1 percent.

In their first NCAA Division I Tournament berth, the Jackrabbits drew first-round opponent Texas Christian to kick-off their tournament campaign in Lubbock, Texas. The sharp-shooting Jacks tied an NCAA Tournament record with 16-three pointers in the game, matching its own school record in the process and rolled to the second round with a 90-55 victory over the Horned Frogs.

SDSU's season ended in a 60-58 loss to second-seeded Baylor after the Bears banked in runner with .5 seconds remaining.

Throughout the season, the Jackrabbits gained national notoriety after being featured by CBS Sports, ESPN.com, Sports Illustrated and New York Times. In addition, SDSU was featured prominently during ESPN's tournament selection special.

The Jackrabbit senior class of Warkenthien, Stacie Oistad, Ashlea Muckenhirn, and Morgan Meier ended their collegiate careers with a 99-25 record.

Postseason accolades continued for the Jackrabbits as Warkenthien received honorable mention recognition on the Associated Press All-America Team. Johnston was also named as one of four finalists for the 2009 Naismith Women's College Coach of the Year award.

SUMMIT LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP

Game 31 • Sioux Falls Arena (5,040)
ORAL ROBERTS 49
SOUTH DAKOTA STATE 77
Summit League Quarterfinal

SIOUX FALLS — South Dakota State raced out to an early 10-point lead and never looked back in its Summit League Championship opener, defeating Oral Roberts (Okla.), 77-49, March 10 at the Sioux Falls Arena.

The Jackrabbits, ranked 14th in the USA Today/ESPN coaches' poll and 17th by the Associated Press, posted their 15th consecutive victory to improve to 29-2. Oral Roberts ends its season at 13-17.

SDSU never trailed, scoring on its opening possession and building the lead to 15-5 on a Macie Michelson jumper at the 13-minute, 41-second mark of the first half. The Jackrabbits continued to extend their lead, reaching 23 on back-to-back three-pointers by Jill Young.

Young, who made seven triples earlier in the week at ORU, canned all four of her first-half three-point attempts and 5-of-6 for the game en route to 16 points.

With Young hitting from the outside, Maria Boever was taking care of business in the paint for the Jackrabbits, tallying a game-high 21 points on 10-of-12 shooting from the field.

SDSU led 44-18 at halftime and built the margin to as many as 37 points, 68-31, midway through the second half.

Michelson dished out a career-high eight assists and added eight points. As a team, the Jackrabbits tied a season high with 22 assists. Ten different players recorded at least one assist in the game.

The Jackrabbits finished the game 30-of-62 from the field, 48.4 percent, including 7-of-26 from three-point range. At the line, SDSU made 10-of-14 attempts, 71.4 percent.

Stacie Oistad led all players with seven rebounds to lead the Jackrabbits' 37-30 rebounding advantage.

Oral Roberts shot 21-of-52 from the field, 40.4 percent, and was 5-of-16 from behind the arc. The Golden Eagles attempted only four free throws, making two for 50 percent.

ORU also was hindered by 21 turnovers, compared to 12 by SDSU.

Game 32 • Sioux Falls Arena (4,725)
IUPUI 53
SOUTH DAKOTA STATE 68
Summit League Semifinal

SIOUX FALLS — It certainly wasn't pretty, but the South Dakota State University women's basketball team earned a trip to the Summit League championship game with a 68-53 victory over IUPUI in semifinal action March 9 at the Sioux Falls Arena.

The Jacks upped their record to 30-2 in notching their 16th win in a row.

SDSU opened the game by missing its first three shots from the field and turning the ball over two times before Macie Michelson ended the drought with a traditional three-point play. The Jackrabbits continually attacked the IUPUI matchup zone in the early going, drawing several fouls and racking up points at the free throw line as 11 of SDSU's first 16 points came at the charity stripe.

The only other field goal in the first 11 minutes of the game for the Jackrabbits was a three-pointer by Jill Young, which gave SDSU the lead for good at 12-11. Back-to-back three-pointers by Michelson put the Jackrabbits ahead 22-13 with 8 minutes, 13 seconds to play in the half.

IUPUI trimmed the lead back to five, 26-21, but the Jackrabbits closed out the half with a 12-5 run. After Young missed two free throws after a technical foul, she drained her next two foul shots and canned a three-pointer a minute later to put the Jackrabbits up 31-21. Another Young three-pointer from well behind the NBA three-point line just before the first-half buzzer gave SDSU a 38-26 lead at halftime.

Young finished the game with a team-high 17 points on 4-of-10 shooting from long range.

However, IUPUI would not go down without a fight. The Jaguars held SDSU without a field goal for the final 8:37 of the game and pulled to within 12 at 61-49 with 4:18 remaining. But the Jackrabbits pounded the offensive glass and sealed the victory by making 7-of-10 free throw attempts in the closing minutes.

Warkenthien finished the game with her 11th double-double of the season, posting 16 points and 12 rebounds. Michelson added a season-high 13 points and career-high six steals as the Jackrabbits forced 21 turnovers.

Jaguar forward Jernisha Cann tallied a game-high 19 points and added 10 rebounds to become the all-time Summit League rebounding leader with 1,662. Nicole James contributed 11 points.

Summit League Championship Game

SIOUX FALLS — South Dakota State overcame a 14-point first-half deficit and outscored Oakland (Mich.) by 20 points in the second half to record a 79-69 victory and the Summit League tournament championship Tuesday afternoon before a crowd of 5,580 at the Sioux Falls Arena.

The top-seeded Jackrabbits improved to 31-2 with their 17th consecutive victory. Oakland fell to 26-6 after having its 10-game winning streak snapped.

The Golden Grizzlies and senior guard Jessica Pike controlled the game early as Oakland raced out to a 19-7 lead in the first eight minutes behind 12 points from Pike. A 7-2 spurt later in the half, capped by a Hanna Reising three-pointer, gave the Grizzlies their largest lead of the night at 32-18 with five minutes, 20 seconds remaining.

Plagued by 11 first-half turnovers, the Jackrabbits began to find an offensive rhythm late in the opening frame as they drew Oakland into foul trouble. SDSU got back to within eight in the closing minutes before trailing by 10, 39-29, at the break.

SDSU quickly erased the deficit in the second half thanks to strong perimeter shooting. Kristin Rotert hit a pair of three-pointers in the first five and a half minutes and Stacie Oistad gave the Jackrabbits their first lead since 3-2 with a three-pointer at the 13:46 mark to go ahead 46-45. Reising answered with a three-pointer for Oakland, which made its first six three-point attempts in the game, but Jill Young gave the Jackrabbits the lead for good seconds later with her 10th trifecta of the tournament.

Leading by three with just over seven minutes to play, SDSU strung together one final run to put the game out of reach. Macie Michelson scored five points as part of a 13-3 Jackrabbit run, capping the four-minute outburst with the Jackrabbits' 10th three-pointer of the game.

Tournament Most Valuable Player Jennifer Warkenthien made four free throws in the final minute and Kristin Rotert added a pair to ice the game. Warkenthien was a perfect 10-for-10 at the free throw line in the game en route to a game-high 23 points. She also finished off her 12th double-double of the season with 11 rebounds, all of which came on the defensive end.

As a team, the Jackrabbits held a 39-30 rebounding advantage.

Rotert wrapped up her strongest performance of the tournament with 15 points, while Oistad also made three three-pointers en route to 13 points. Michelson added 10 points.

The Jackrabbits shot 56 percent, 14-of-25, from the field in the second half, and 44.7 percent for the game, 21-of-47. From three-point range, SDSU was 10-of-24, and was efficient at the line, making 27-of-32 attempts for 84.4 percent.

After finishing the first half with 20 points, Pike was held to two points the rest of the way to end up with a team-high 22 points. Reising tallied 18 points off the bench and Melissa Jeltema notched 12 points and a team-high eight rebounds before fouling out.

Oakland finished the game 26-of-62 from the field, 41.9 percent, and was 7-of-9 from behind the arc. The Golden Grizzlies were 10-of-13 on free throws.

NCAA TOURNAMENT

Game 34 • United Spirit Arena (2,748)
TEXAS CHRISTIAN 55
SOUTH DAKOTA STATE 90
NCAA Tournament First-Round Game

LUBBOCK, Texas – Talk about an auspicious debut. South Dakota State tied an NCAA Tournament record with 16 three-pointers, matching its own school record in the process, as the Jackrabbits rolled in their inaugural D-I tournament game with a 90-55 victory over Texas Christian on Maryc 22.

The Jackrabbits, who tied a school record with their 32nd victory of the season, upped their record to 32-2, while TCU ended its season at 20-11. SDSU used the three-ball early and often, racing out to a 28-4 lead in the first nine and a half minutes behind seven three-pointers. Redshirt freshman Jill Young came off the bench to drain her first four three-point attempts of the night.

The Jackrabbits continued to shred TCU's 1-3-1 defense, racking up 11 three-pointers in the first half en route to a 52-22 halftime advantage. SDSU's 52 first-half points were the most the Jackrabbits have scored in any half this season.

While SDSU was shooting the lights out at United Spirit Arena, TCU was firing blanks. The Horned Frogs opened the first half 1-of-15 from the field and the second half with a 1-of-14 stretch. The second-half drought allowed the Jackrabbits to open the final frame with a 15-1 run as they built their largest lead of the night – 44 points – at 67-23 on a Kristin Rotert three-point play.

Rotert and Young shared game-high honors with 17 points. Young canned five three-pointers, while Rotert nailed four from long distance. Jennifer Warkenthien posted her 13th double-double of the season with 15 points and 10 rebounds. Maria Boever added 13 points and seven rebounds. Stacie Oistad was the fifth player in double figures for SDSU with 10 points.

The Jackrabbits were efficient offensively, finishing the game 34-of-63 overall from the field, 54 percent, including 16-of-31 from three-point range. SDSU recorded assists on 28 of its 34 baskets and committed only 10 turnovers. Seven different Jackrabbit players hit at least one three-pointer in the game as SDSU tied its school record set on two different occasions: Feb. 1, 2005 at Northern State and Feb. 14 of this season versus UMKC. The Jackrabbits also tied their school record for three-pointers in a season with 288, matching the total set by the 2001-02 squad which reached the semifinals of the NCAA Division II Elite Eight.

At the line, the Jackrabbits made 6-of-8 attempts, 75 percent. TCU, meanwhile, ended the night 20-of-63 from the field, 31.7 percent, and 3-for-16 on three-point attempts. The Horned Frogs also converted 12-of-17 attempts at the free throw line, 70.6 percent.

The Horned Frogs' leading scorer, Helena Sverrisdottir, was held scoreless in the first half, but led TCU with 12 points and eight rebounds. Emily Carter tallied 11 points and TK LaFleur contributed 10 points.

Rebounding was nearly even, but the Jackrabbits held a 37-35 rebounding advantage.

BAYLOR 60
NCAA Tournament Second-Round Game

LUBBOCK, Texas — Kelli Griffin banked in a runner from the right side of the lane with .5 seconds remaining, lifting fifth-ranked and second-seeded Baylor (Texas) to a 60-58 win over 15th-ranked South Dakota State in the NCAA Tournament Second Round on March 24.

The Jackrabbits ended their season with a 32-3 record, matching the best mark in school history. Baylor upped its record to 29-5.

SDSU led for nearly the entire game, jumping out to a 15-2 lead in the opening seven minutes. The Jackrabbits opened the game 6-of-9 from the field, while Baylor opened the game 0-for-10. The Lady Bears' first basket of the game came at the 10:19 mark of the first half on a putback by Melissa Jones that cut the margin to 19-8.

Baylor pulled to within four, 22-18, with 7:53 remaining on a Griffin three-pointer, but the Jackrabbits reeled off the next six points to build the lead back to 10. However, the Lady Bears closed the first half on a 10-1 run to make the score 29-28 heading into halftime.

The Lady Bears stayed in the game by getting to the foul line, scoring their first six points of the game and 14 of their first-half points at the charity stripe.

SDSU continued to hold the lead through the first six minutes of the second half until Baylor knotted the game for the first time at 36-all at the 13:52 mark. The Jackrabbits forged back into the lead, holding no more than a four-point lead at any stretch — the last at 53-49 following two Jennifer Warkenthien free throws with 4:20 remaining.

Baylor took its first lead of the night on three-pointer by Jessica Morrow to put the Lady Bears in the lead at 55-53 with 2:57 to play, but SDSU came back 23 seconds to tie the game on a Stacie Oistad layup.

Trailing 58-56 with 21 seconds remaining, the Jackrabbits tied the game for the fifth time with 7.6 seconds remaining as Jill Young scored on a layup after a backcut pass from Warkenthien.

After a timeout, Griffin drove the length of the floor for the winning basket. Griffin ended the night with a game-high 21 points on 7-for-14 shooting from the field.

Melissa Jones added 12 points and a team-high seven rebounds off the bench for Baylor, which held a 30-29 advantage on the boards.

Warkenthien led the Jackrabbits with her 14th double-double of the season, scoring 18 points and grabbing 10 rebounds in her final collegiate game. She moved into 13th on the SDSU career scoring list with 1,349 points and ended sixth on the Jackrabbit career rebounding charts with 782.

Maria Boever tallied nine points and Stacie Oistad contributed eight off the bench.

The Jackrabbits ended the night 20-of-46 from the field, 43.5 percent, but were only 3-of-15 from three-point range. At the line, the Jackrabbits made 15-of-20 attempts, 75 percent.

Baylor finished the game 20-of-49 from the floor, 40.8 percent, including 3-of-11 from behind the arc. The Bears put together one of their best efforts at the free throw line this season with a 17-of-19 showing, 89.5 percent.

SDSU's senior class of Warkenthien, Oistad, Ashlea Muckenhirn and Morgan Meier ended their collegiate careers with a 99-25 record.

SUMMIT LEAGUE AWARDS

Led by Player of the Year Jennifer Warkenthien, the league-champion South Dakota State University women's basketball team was well represented in Summit League postseason honors.

Other Jackrabbits honored on the all-league team were second-team selection Ketty Cornemann and honorable mention picks Maria Boever and Kristin Rotert.

In addition, Aaron Johnston was named Summit League Coach of the Year for the second consecutive season and Jill Young was honored as Summit League Sixth Woman of the Year and earned a spot on the league's All-Newcomer Team.

A senior from Willow Lake, Warkenthien led the league in scoring during league games with an average of 17.2 points per game, was second in field goal shooting at 53.7 percent and ranked fourth in rebounds with 8.9 per contest. She posted the top two scoring games in the league during the 2008-09 season, tallying 29 points against Oakland (Mich.) on Jan. 31 and 28 at Southern Utah on Jan. 17.

Warkenthien is only the second Jackrabbit women's basketball player to earn a conference player of the year award, joining Laurie (Bruns) Kruse, who was named North Central Conference Player of the Year during the 1990-91 season.

Joining Warkenthien as a first-team all-Summit selection were IUPUI teammates Jernisha Cann and Julia Whitted. Cann also claimed Defensive Player of the Year accolades for the third consecutive season after leading the league in rebounds (10.4) and steals (3.4) per game. For the year, the senior finished fourth in the nation in steals per game. Cann also averaged 10.9 points and 3.8 assists in league games.

Whitted, meanwhile, finished second in the league in blocks (2.3 bpg) and third in rebounding (9.3 rpg).

UMKC's Chazny Morris collected first-team honors after finishing second in scoring (16.6 ppg), while Jessica Pike of Oakland was third (16.0 ppg). Pike was also tops in the league in three-point field goal percentage (.500).

Oral Roberts' Janae Voelker claimed a spot on the first team averaging 15.9 points and 8.9 rebounds per game.

Among second-team all-league selections, Cornemann, a junior forward from Yankton, posted averages of 9.9 points and 3.4 rebounds per league game. She scored in double figures in 10 games, including a career-high 23 points in a Jan. 19 game at

A junior forward from Worthington, Minn., Boever shot 53.1 percent from the field in 14 league games, while averaging 9.4 points and 5.4 rebounds. She also ranked among the league leaders in blocked shots.

Rotert, a sophomore guard from Salem, started 16 of 18 league games and ranked among the league leaders with an average of 1.67 three-pointers made per game. She averaged 9.9 points and 2.7 rebounds per game.

Young became the second Jackrabbit in as many years to be named Sixth Woman of the Year, and also earned a spot on the All-Newcomer Team, repeating what Rotert accomplished during the 2007-08 season. A redshirt freshman from Mitchell, Young ranked second on the team with an average of 10.3 points per league game, led the league with 44 three-
